

Duane Futch
Senior Partner and Executive Vice President
Partnership Travel Consulting, LLC

Duane Futch is a Senior Partner and Executive Vice President with Partnership Travel Consulting, LLC. In his role, Mr. Futch consults to international clients in the areas of corporate and government travel, as well as corporate aviation departments. Prior to joining PTC, Mr. Futch was Vice President of Global Government Programs at Sabre Travel Network where he was responsible for Sabre's Global Government / Public Sector Programs that spanned North America, Latin America, EMEA and Asia.

Previous to Sabre, Mr. Futch spent ten highly successful years as Director of Wal-Mart's Global Travel Division, which included Wal-Mart Aviation, the Wal-Mart Travel Department and the company's leisure travel group. During his tenure at Wal-Mart, the travel team created the first-ever U.S. point-of-sale and multi-currency transaction model to facilitate international financial settlement of air ticketing processes. Under his leadership Wal-Mart's Aviation Department, consisting of 29 jets, was named Flight Department of the Year in 2000 by Professional Pilot Magazine and the Travel Department was named Travel Department of the year by the Airline Reporting Corporation. A recipient of the Travel Manager of the Year Award in 2006, Mr. Futch holds a Bachelor's Degree in Economics (Air Commerce) from Florida Institute of Technology and is a graduate of the first class of "Global Leaders" at the University of Arkansas in 2003. In addition, Mr. Futch holds an airline transport pilot certificate and has held several FAA regulatory positions.
