

Emre Mangir
Mozio

As COO at Mozio, Emre helps connect travel brands and their customers with the best local options for ground transportation. He is focused on enabling leading travel brands to use Mozio's technology to increase both customer engagement and profits while avoiding costly mistakes seen in typical approaches to offering ground transportation.

Prior to joining Mozio, he worked as a consultant to over a dozen leading global technology companies to identify and achieve over a hundred million dollars in profit and revenue improvements by optimizing Sales, Marketing, and Pricing efforts.

He is passionate about using an understanding of customer behavior and needs to build better products. He has conducted research in both Negotiation and Neuroscience at the University of California, Berkeley and University of California, San Francisco, and served as a guest instructor in courses on Open Innovation and Marketing. He earned dual degrees in Applied Mathematics and Economics from the University of California, Berkeley.
