

Kjarsten Philipsen
VP Account Management
BCD Travel

In his role of VP Account Management at BCD Travel, Kjarsten leads an experienced strategic account management team responsible for client partnerships across the technology, manufacturing, and professional services sectors. He maintains overarching business ownership ensuring key organizational goals are met as they relate service delivery, customer satisfaction, talent acquisition and employee retention.

Kjarsten Philipsen has nearly two decades of experience in travel and technology having worked for British Airways, LATAM Airlines, PMP Digital (while based in Sydney, Australia) and Egencia prior to joining BCD Travel in March 2016. Kjarsten graduated from Eastern Michigan University with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Marketing with curriculum completed at the University of Copenhagen, Denmark. Kjarsten has been an active member of the travel industry serving on the Board of the Los Angeles Business Travel Association as Director of CSR, Treasurer, Vice President, President-Elect and President. He currently is on the Executive Board serving as a Board Advisor.