

Mark Ziegler

Senior Travel Manager,
Global Travel Services
NetApp

Mark Ziegler is a thirty-five year veteran of the travel industry. He has worked for TMC's, an airline, and a GDS before moving to the buyer side. His experience includes travel manager for Agilent Technologies, Atmel Corporation, and is currently senior travel manager at NetApp in Sunnyvale, CA.

He is also active in GBTA, having served on three GBTA committees, the GBTA board, and most recently as vice president. Locally, he has served on the Bay Area BTA and Silicon Valley BTA boards and was president of BABTA in 2007-08.

He has traveled extensively and can't imagine working in any other industry than travel.
